

House-Autry Mills & No. 38 Team Supporting Military Missions In Action

Special Decal Will Run In Sunday's NASCAR Sprint Cup Series Race

FOUR OAKS, N.C. (8/29/12) - - While a larger than life image of a fried chicken drumstick on the rear quarter panel of a NASCAR Sprint Cup Series racecar is definitely a first, another "first" will be featured on David Gilliland's No. 38 House-Autry Ford at Atlanta Motor Speedway this Labor Day weekend. For the first time ever, Military Missions in Action (MMIA) will be featured on a NASCAR entry.

House-Autry will share the decklid of David Gilliland's No. 38 car with the Military Missions in Action logo in an effort to highlight this very worthwhile cause.

About Military Missions in Action (MMIA), a non-profit organization, founded in 2008 and based in Fuquay-Varina, NC. They help Veterans with disabilities achieve independent living with home modifications. Through their community giveback program groups of volunteers all come together to give back to our Veterans who sacrificed so much for our freedom. To find out more information on Military Missions In Action & how you can help, visit <http://www.militarymissionsinaction.org>

"We are honored to work with Military Missions in Action and are very excited about the support they provide to our Veterans" said Craig Hagood, President of House-Autry Mills, and "Military Missions in Action works by engaging the local community to help assist with the needs of our Veteran neighbors who have sacrificed so much for us."

Coverage of the Advocare 500 begins Sunday at 6:30 p.m. on ESPN.